When the holy spirit is upon you

The message of Pentecost is a great comfort to those who can acknowledge this: "Listen! You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you!" And it wasn't just anybody who said these words, but Jesus Christ Himself, just before He ascended to heaven. People live and behave in very different ways. Some are quite likeable, whereas others are self-centered and egotistic. Some are helpful and friendly, whilst others are downright difficult to deal with. But there is one thing that applies to each one of us, if we really want to live according to the teachings of the Bible. If we are honest, there is only one conclusion: "I'm just not able to be good to everyone, and definitely not all the time. I can't ensure that love always guides me in my thoughts and words." "You shall receive power" - to live together as Christians in a fellowship! You could think that the most difficult thing is to love your enemies. And that is really difficult. But Jesus said, "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends." John 15:13. When we live together in a Christian fellowship year after year, we get to know each other rather well. The intention is that we love each other as brothers and sisters (yes, really each one of the others!) For example, by not being envious or bitter, or thinking evil. Never reproaching the others, but being mild, compassionate and encouraging. If we are honest, we have to admit: "In myself I'm just not able to love all my brothers and sisters without ceasing, and to love the others like Jesus has loved me." Then this message of Pentecost is a very great comfort: "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you!" Acts 1:8. Yes, Pentecost is really a festive occasion with a glorious promise and message! In Acts 1:8, Luke was recording the promise of the gift of the HS by Christ to the disciples and to all believers in Christ that would take place after His ascension. Jesus made a similar promise in John 7:37-39 where He said, "On the last day of the feast, the greatest day, Jesus stood up and shouted out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. Just as the scripture says, 'From within him will flow rivers of living water.'" (Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were going to receive; for the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.) The meaning is that the era of the Holy Spirit had not yet arrived; the Spirit was not as yet at work in a way he later would be because Jesus had not yet returned to his Father. Cf. also Acts 19:2; Eph. 1:13-14. The HS today is God's special gift for all those who, having realized we all have sinned and fallen short of the glory or the holy character of God, have turned from any form of self-trust or from their apathy, etc., to Jesus Christ to trust in Him by faith. This means trusting in the Bible's witness to the person and work of Christ on the cross for our sin. The Spirit is not anything mysterious. He is the third person of the Godhead whom the Father and the Son promised as the one to personally indwell all believers and to be their enablement to live the Christian life. This was the meaning and point in Acts 1:8, "you shall receive power ... and you shall be my witnesses." For more on this, may we encourage you to read lessons 4 and 5 in Part Two of the ABCs for Christian Growth, Laying the Foundation. These lessons on the Holy Spirit explains something of His person and ministry with biblical evidence.
